

Rachel Q. Edmonson a native of upstate New York, currently residing in sunny FL. Both a Medical Aesthetician, CLT and Electrologist, CCE, CME, has been active with her career path. As a Skin Care Specialist, her objective is to promote overall wellbeing with innovative technology to enhance esthetically each individual need.

In her 4th year in the skin care industry, she prides herself with treating and educating her clients with information conducive to case by case necessity. A graduate of Bryant & Stratton College in 2005, with an A.A.S in Business Management, Aesthetics Science Institute 2012, received her Paramedical, Aesthetics, and Laser Certification. Finally 2015, Florida College of Natural Health, Esthetics and Laser Speciality, electrolysis and laser training.

Currently, licensed in dual states NY and FL education has been key to her career path as a professional. Permanent hair reduction, a driving force in her interest in electrolysis treatments. “I witnessed Improvement personally, this escalated my necessity to assist others in their hair removal journey.”

Rachel is a well rounded Aesthetician and Electrologist with expertise in Semi-Permanent Eye Lash extensions, Facial Treatments, Chemical Peels, Microdermabrasions and Radio Frequency Treatments.